A new comedy by Sue & Clive Read

Well done to all involved with Follies. It was a difficult show but we pulled it off! Am dram audiences were amazed at the depth of talent in Revellers.. There are not many societies who could cast so many quality soloists in one show. So, that's enough of the boasting but, seriously folks, you can be justly proud of Follies - a success artistically, a happy company, a friendly, new venue and audiences who were, on the whole, entertained by our efforts. We could have done with a few more "bums on seats" but all in all not bad.

Ruth and Roy in their big duet

So we are well into rehearsals for this hilarious comedy about a couple who move out to Arizona to open a B & B. Director, Helen Naylor, had some excellent auditions and is now working with a very talented cast as follows:-

Jo, Cyd, Sean, Helen, Drew and Steve in reflective mood during Follies

- |                    |                 |
|--------------------|-----------------|
| Jean Harlowe       | Vicki Head      |
| Barry Harlowe      | Brian Havers    |
| Carmen             | Cydney Beagley  |
| Errol Charlesworth | Jonathan Buckle |
| April Charlesworth | Joanna Linford  |
| Bubba Bean         | Shaun Kane      |
| Laverne Bean       | Nicole Gardiner |
| Mr. Kofna          | Daniel Kane     |

Ticket sales are something to be borne in mind for the upcoming shows. It is up to the members mainly to sell them. Word of mouth is the most successful way to bring in audiences and when we have smaller cast plays we rely on all members to play their part in publicising and encouraging people to come. Remember the more people who come and enjoy a show - the easier it is to sell the next one. So even if you are not involved in a particular production, please do your bit!

Helen, Sue and Cyd (who said Sue was past it?)

Supporters will notice some new names in principal roles this time and we are delighted to welcome Vicki, Nicole and Daniel to our ever swelling ranks of actors. This promises to be a fun night out for everyone and Sue and Clive think this is possibly their funniest play so far. So why not come along and see if they are right?

The evening will include the usual, excellent fish and chip supper and tickets can be obtained by ringing Sylvia on 01733 755176 or Sue on 01733 560449. Prices are £11.00 for Tues 17th, £12.50 for Weds and Thurs and £13.00 for Friday.

WHO ME?
9th - 12th JUNE 2015

This is another of Clive Read's excellent plays. Clive bills it as a comedy mystery. Set during the 90's the story revolves around Stanley (Linc) Lincoln, a successful playwright, who is followed home one night by a young woman, Louise, who applied his make up at a BBC chat show. It transpires that she knows everything about him - far more than he is comfortable with - so Linc endeavours to find out more about this enigmatic, young woman with the help of his agent, Martin, and his long suffering partner, Michelle. The results are surprising and emotional. This play will be directed by Sue Read and she is looking for actors to play just four parts in this play with tour de force performances required from the actors who play Linc and Louise. Do Revellers have the talent? You bet!

To be performed at the Bowls Club again with Fish and Chips in the interval, patrons are assured of another excellent night's entertainment. Put the date in your new diaries now!

SPOOKTACULAR!
27 - 30 OCTOBER 2015

The Revellers present
A Halloween Entertainment

A supper Theatre
The Peterborough Indoors Bowls Club

Following the success of The End of the Pier Show, Love and Laughter and Festive Frolics, Revellers are to mount another of their themed reviews. Leading up to Halloween this year will be "Spooktacular" - a light hearted look at monsters, ghouls, ghosties & things that go bump in the night.

Sue Read will direct and all your favourite characters will be there to present this romp. There will be songs, sketches, dances and the odd bit of audience participation no doubt. We expect "im from Farcet Fen" may put in an appearance alongside all your other favourite artistes. So if any of you have a spooky poem, song, dance or other ghoulish (but humorous) party piece mention it to Sue and she will see if it is suitable for inclusion in this fangtastic (see what I did there?) show.

Clive Read will be our guiding compere for this stroll amongst the gravestones - miss it at your peril! (WHOOHAHAHAHA!)

REVELLERS HALLOWEEN BALL
